Study Area & Course Registration
1. Course list/syllabus available to international exchange students? (Website/Link)	http://catalog.ucdavis.edu/
2. Course restrictions (not open) to incoming students?	The Global Study Program is an undergraduate program and therefore only exceptional students will be permitted to enroll in graduate courses with instructor approval. Certain courses are extremely popular and may not be available, including courses in Communications, Economics, Computer Science, Design, Electrical Engineering, Food Science, Nutrition and others. Special exams may be required for some courses; failing the exam would prevent enrollment. Space in any specific course is not guaranteed, even for visiting students with strict requirements on courses necessary for graduating from their home university.
3. Course Registration Period	https://registrar.ucdavis.edu/calendar/registration.cfm
4. Course Withdrawal Deadline	The last day to drop a course without the permission of your Dean's Office is the 10th day of instruction for courses designated as 10-day drop courses and the 20th day of instruction for courses designated as 20-day drop https://registrar.ucdavis.edu/calendar/quarter.cfm
Credit Transfer
1. Credit/Grading System	12-13 units is full-time/ 4.0 Grading Scale

Housing
1. Is on-campus housing offered by your university? If yes, when is the housing application deadline? Do students need to apply for housing?	Two excellent housing options are available: rental apartments or home-stay arrangements. a. Rental Apartments. Some students prefer to secure their own accommodations, perhaps through friends or relatives. b. Homestay with a Local Family. Our Center for International Education (CIE) Housing office helps individual students with a variety of housing options, including homestay, apartments and dormitories (summers only). If you would like more information or assistance in finding a homestay, please contact us at ciehousing@ucdavis.edu .
2. Please provide us with housing application website	Applications and deadlines vary based on which option students choose.
3. Do you provide assistance for students to look for off-campus housing?	Students make their own housing arrangements, with guidance from Global Study Program advisors who make every effort to ensure students find housing close to campus
