At the heart of the city of Leeds, West Yorkshire, the University was founded in 1904.

Globally renowned for the quality of our teaching and research, we are ranked in the top 100 universities (QS World University Rankings 2021) and are part of the Russell Group of UK research-intensive universities.

Teaching here is designed to be flexible, offering a blend of face-to-face and online learning. Our digital learning environment is interactive and engaging, using the latest multimedia facilities to stimulate discussion between students and tutors, as part of a supportive and community focused experience.

Study Abroad at the University of Leeds

Incoming study abroad and semester or year exchange

Through the study abroad and exchange programmes students are able to spend one or two semesters studying at the University of Leeds, and can transfer the credits earned back to their home universities. All exchange and study abroad students are taught with home and international students who are taking a full degree programme. There are a wide variety of modules (courses) available across seven faculties and there are pre-sessional and in-sessional English courses to help students develop their English language skills.

Study abroad and exchange academic information

Minimum GPA requirements
6.0 (overall), with 5.5 in each component, or equivalent qualification.

Module (course) duration
Some modules take two semesters (the full academic year) to complete. These modules are listed as ‘Semester 1 and 2’ in the module catalogue. Students cannot study a ‘Semester 1’ and ‘2’ module if they are coming to Leeds for one semester only. Most modules in these schools are ‘Semester 1 and 2’ modules:
• Chemical and Process Engineering (CAPE)
• Design (Fashion Design and Fashion Marketing modules)
• Electronic and Electrical Engineering (ELEC)
• Healthcare (HECS)
• Mechanical Engineering (MECH and PDES)

Module enrolment
Before students submit a formal application they should send a portfolio to the relevant teaching School to obtain permission to make up their credit load. They will need to consider carefully if their intended programme of study meets the requirements of their home University.

Fine Art, Design and Performance Music
Studio practise modules in the teaching schools of Fine Art, Design and Performance Music modules are open to students studying these subjects as majors at their home university.

Application form
Nominated applicants apply online at www.leeds.ac.uk/summerapply

Pre-sessional language courses
If students do not meet our standard minimum entry requirements, the Language Centre offers a range of pre-sessional courses starting in September, January, July and August. The language requirements and fees information for these courses are at www.leeds.ac.uk/incomingschoolguidance

Application procedure

Study abroad and exchange

Leeds International Summer School (LISS) academic information

Transcripts

All undergraduate official transcript of records will be released in mid-July after the results are officially released.

Semester 1 only students will receive an electronic provisional transcript in late February. Please note that these marks remain provisional, and are therefore subject to change, until they are officially released in July.

Postgraduate marks are officially released in November, so official transcripts for students who have taken postgraduate modules may not be available until this time. LISS students will receive their transcripts in September.
